The Infidel and his Daughter.

[Suggested by reading a newspaper paragraph, describing the scene between the brave old Ethan Allen and his daughter, on the day of her death, when she asked the stern infidel in whose faith he would have her die—his or her mother's.]

"The damps of death are coming fast,
My father, o'er my brow;
The past, with all its scenes has fled,
And I must turn me now
To that dim future which in vain
My dark'ning eyes descry;
Tell me, my father, in this hour,
In whose stern faith to die.

"In thine? I've watched the scornful smile,
And heard thy withering tone,
Whene'er the Christian's humble hope
Was placed above thine own:
I've heard thee speak of coming death
Without a shade of gloom,
And laugh at all the childish fears
That cluster round the tomb.

"Or is it in my mother's faith?
How fondly do I trace,
Through many a weary year long past
That calm and saintly face!
How often do I call to mind,
Now she is 'neath the sod,
The place, the hour, in which she drew
My early thoughts to God!

"'Twas then she took this sacred book,
And from its burning page,
Read how its truths support the soul
In youth and failing age!
And bade me in its precepts life,
And by its precepts die,
That I might share a home of love,
In worlds beyond the sky.

"My father shall I look above,
Amid this gathering gloom,
To Him whose promises of love
Extend beyond the tomb?
Or curse the Being who hath blessed
This chequered path of mine?
And promises eternal rest!
Or die, my sire, in thine?"

The frown upon that warrior brow
Passed like a cloud away;
And tears coursed down that rugged cheek
That flowed not till that day.
"Not—not in mine," with choking voice,
The skeptic made reply—
"But in thy mother's holy faith,
My daughter, may'st thou die!"

Select Miscellany.

BLUE EYES BEHIND A VEIL.

BY LUCY A. RANDALL.

Mr. Edge was late at breakfast—that was not an unusual occurrence—and he was a little disposed to be cross—which was likewise nothing new. So he retired behind his newspaper, and devoured his eggs and toast without vouchsafing any reply, save unsocial monosyllables, to the gentle remarks of the fresh-looking lady opposite—to wit: Mrs. Edge. But she was gathering her forces for the grand final onslaught, and when at length Mr. Edge had got down to the last paragraph, and laid aside the reading sheet, it came.

"Dear, didn't you say you were going to leave me a hundred dollars for my furs to-day?"

"What furs?" (Rather shortly it was spoken.)

"Those new sable, dear; my old affairs are getting shockingly shabby, and I really think—

"Oh, pshaw! what's the use of being so extravagant! I haven't any money just now to lay out in useless follies. The old furs are good enough for any sensible woman to wear."

Mrs. Edge, good, meek little soul that she was, relapsed into obedient silence; she only sighed a soft inward sigh, and presently began on a new tack.

"Henry, will you go with me to my aunt's to-night?"

"Can't you go alone?"

"Alone? How would it look? Mrs. Edge's temper—for she had one, though it did not very often parade itself—was fairly roused. "You are very neglectful of those little attentions you used to pay me once—you never walk with me, nor pick up my handkerchief, nor notice my dress, as you did once."

"Well, a fellow can't be forever waiting upon the women, can he?" growled Mr. Edge.

"You could be polite enough to Miss Waters last night when you never thought to ask me if I wanted anything, though you knew that I had a headache. I don't believe you care as much for me as you used to do."

And Mrs. Edge looked extremely pretty, with tears in her eyes and a quiver on her round rosy lips.

"Pshaw!" replied her husband, peevishly.

"Now don't be so silly, Maria."

"And in the stage yesterday, you never asked me if I was warm enough, or put my shawl round me, while Mr. Brown was so very affectionate to his wife! It was mortifying enough. Henry; it was indeed."

"I didn't know women were such fools," said Mr. Edge, sternly, as he drew on his overcoat to escape the tempest which he saw rapidly impending. "Am I the sort of a man to make a ninny of myself doing the polite to any female creature? Did you ever know me to be consoious whether a woman had a shawl on or a swallow-tailed coat."

Maria eclipsed the blue eyes behind a little pocket handkerchief, and Henry, the savage, banged the door loud enough to give Betty, in the kitchen, a nervous start.

"Raining again! I do believe we are going to have a second edition of the deluge," said Mr. Edge to himself that evening, as he ensconsed his six feet of iniquity in the south-west corner of a car at the City Hall.

"Go ahead, conductor, can't you?—What are you waiting for? Don't you see we're full, and it's dark already?"

"In one minute, sir," said the conductor, as he helped a little woman with a basket on board. "Now, sir, move up a bit, if you please."

Mr. Edge was exceedingly comfortable, didn't want to move up, but the light of the lamp, just ignited, falling full on the pearly forehead and shining golden hair of the new comer, he altered his mind and he did move up.

"What lovely eyes!" quoth he mentally, as he bestowed a single acknowledging smile.

"Real violet blue! the very color I admire most. Bless me! what business has a married man like me thinking about eyes? What would Maria say, the jealous little minx! There—she's drawn a ronfounded veil over her face, and the light is as dim as a tallow dip! But those were pretty eyes!"

The fair possessor of the blue eyes shivered slightly and drew her mantilla closer round her shoulders.

"Are you cold, Miss?" Pray, honor me by wearing my shawl. I don't need it at all myself."

She did not refuse—she murmured some faint apology for troubling him, but it was not a refusal.

"No trouble—not a bit?" said he, with alacrity arranging it on the taper shoulders; and then, as the young lady handed her fare to the conductor, he said to himself, "what a slender lovely hand! If there's anything I admire in a woman it's a pretty hand. Wonder what kind of a mouth she's got? It must be delightful if it corresponds with the hair and eyes. Plague take the veil!"

But "Plague," whoever that mystical power may be, did not take possession of the provoking veil, so Mr. Edge's curiosity about the mouth of the blue-eyed damsel remained ungratified.

"Have you room enough, Miss? I fear you are crowded. Pray, sit a little closer to me."

"Thank you, sir," was the soft reply, coming from behind the veil, as Mr. Edge rapturously reflected—"Like an angel from the gloom of a dark cloud." And his heart gave a loud thump as the pretty shoulder touched his own shaggy overcoat in a nestling sort of way.

"Decidedly this is getting rather romantic," thought he; and then, with an audible whisper, "What would Maria say?"

The rest of that long, dark rainy ride was delicious with that shoulder against his own. How gallantly he jumped up to pull the strap for her—by some favoring freak of fortune it happened to be at the very street where he intended to stop.—And under all the circumstances we can hardly blame him, when the car stopped so suddenly that she caught instinctively at his hand for support, for the squeeze he gave the plump, showy palm. Any man in his senses would have done the same—it was such an inviting little lily!

Out into the rain and darkness our two pilgrims sailed, scarcely more than able to steer their course by the glimmering reflection of the street lamps on the streaming pavements.

"Allow me to carry your basket, Miss as long as our paths lie in the same direction," said Mr. Edge, courteously relieving her of the burden as he spoke. "And—and—may be you'd find less difficulty in walking if you'd just take my arm!"

Well, wasn't it delightful. Mr. Edge forgot the wet streets and the pitchy darkness—he thought he was walking on roses. Only, as he approached his own door, he began to feel a little nervous, and wish that the lovely incognito would not hold on quite so tight. Suppose Maria should be at the window on the lookout for him, as she often was, how would she interpret matters! He could not make her believe that he only wanted to be polite to a fair traveler. Besides his sweeping delarations of the morning—she would be sure to recall them.

As he stopped at the right number and turned round to bid the blue-eyed a regretful adieu, he was astonished to see her run lightly up the steps to enter likewise! Gracious Apollo! he burst into a chilly perspiration at the idea of Maria's horror!

"I think you have made a mistake, Miss," stammered he, "this can't be your house."

But it was too late—she was already in the brilliantly lighted hall, and turning round threw off her dripping habiliments and made him a low courtesy.

"Very much obliged to you for your politeness, sir!"

"Why, it's my wife!" gasped Edge.

"And happy to see that you haven't forgotten all your gallantry towards the ladies," pursued the merciless little puss, her blue eyes (they were pretty!) all in a dance, with suppressed roguery.

Edge looked from ceiling to floor, in vain search from a loop-hole of retreat; but the search was unavailing.

"Well," said he, in the most sheepish of all tones, "its the first time I ever was polite to a woman in the cars, and hang me if it shan't be the last."

"You see, dear," said the ecstatic little lady, "I was somewhat belated—didn't expect to be delayed so long, and hadn't any idea that I should meet with so much attention in the cars, and from my own husband too! Goodness gracious, how aunt Priscilla will enjoy the joke!"

"If you tell that old harpy," said Edge, in an accent of desperation, "I never shall hear the last of it."

"Very probably," said Maria, provokingly.

"Now look here, darling," said Edge coaxingly, "you won't say anything will you? A fellow don't want to be laughed at by all the world! I say, Maria, you shall have the prettiest furs in New York if you'll only keep quiet—you shall on my honor."

The terms were satisfactory, and Maria capitulated—who wouldn't? And that is the way she got those splendid furs that filled the hearts of all her female friends with envy; and perhaps it was what made Mr. Edge such a scrupulously courteous husband ever after.

THE DOCTOR OUTWITTED.—When Dr. Bodge, an electic physician, was lecturing on health, and particularly on the evils of tea and coffee, he happened to meet one morning at the breakfast table, a witty son of Erin, of the better class.

Conversation turned on the Doctor's favorite subject; he addressed our Irish friend as follows:

"Perhaps you think I would be unable to convince you of the deleterious effect of tea and coffee?"

I don't know," said Erin, "but I would like to be there when you do it!"

"Well," said the Doctor, "if I convince you that they are injurious to your health will you abstain from their use?"

"Shure and I will, sir."

"How often do you use coffee and tea?" asked the doctor.

"Morning and night, sir."

"Well," said the Doctor, "do you ever experience a slight dizziness of the brain before going to bed?"

"I do—indade I do," replied the noble son of Erin.

"And a sharp pain through the temples, in and about the eyes, in the morning."

"Troth, I do, sir."

"Well," said the Doctor, with an air of confidence and assurance in his manner, "that is the tea and coffee."

"Is it, indeed? Faith and I always thought it was the whiskey I drank."

The company roared with laughter and the Doctor quietly retired. He was beaten.

PAT AND THE JUDGE.

Shasta, California, being the head of "Wohaw" navigation the hotels in that town were full to overflowing, when Judge B——— arrived and asked the landlord for his room. The landlord greatly regretted the fact, "there was but one opportunity even to sleep under his roof, and that in a double bed already occupied by a "son of the Emerald Isle,"—a miner from the neighboring county, who was well acquainted with Judge B——— by reputation." The Judge, making a virtue of necessity, agreed to sleep with Pat for the night, and was shown into the room by Boniface, who waked Pat and told him who was to be his bedfellow.—Pat was agreed. The landlord retired, and the Judge commenced the double process of undressing and reminding Pat of the honor of which he was about to be the recipient, and at the same time talking of the "ould counthry" and preparing Pat to give him—the Judge—his support at the coming election. Conversing for a long time after getting into bed said the Judge, "Pat, you would have remained a long time in the old country before you could have slept with a Judge would you not?"—"Yis, yer Honor," said Pat, "and I think yer Honor would have been in the "ould counthry" a long time before ye'd been a Judge, too!" The Judge waked up next morning, and looked at himself in the glass to see whether a bad night's rest had injured his looks.

☞ In a town in Michigan, three boys were lately imprisoned, charged with stealing, one of whom was a negro boy. On the day after the boys were put in confinement, the father of the colored boy called to see his recreant son, and thus addressed him: "Haven't I whipped you, talked to you, and locked you up?—And haven't I told you that if you associated with any of the darned little white cusses you'd bring up here?"

☞ The aim of education should be to teach us rather how to think, than what to think; rather to improve our minds so as to make us think for ourselves, than to load the memory with the thoughts of other men.

THE CHILD AND THE SNAKE.—On Thursday morning week, a little girl two years old, of Mr. Wm. McDaniel, who resides a few miles from Wheeling, went out into the yard to play. In a short time Mrs. McDaniel was horrified at seeing her little girl coming, tottering along the path towards the house with a large copper-head snake in her hands. The child had one hand just below the neck, and the other about the middle, and the forked tongue of the venomous creature was projecting from its mouth in the most savage manner. The mother was almost frightened to death, and our informant says that she has not gotten over the fright yet.—A member of the family immediately ran to the child, and, after some difficulty, succeeded in rescuing it from its perilous situation without being bitten. The child evidently thought it had found a pretty plaything, and the coldness of the morning had undoubtedly benumbed the snake so that it was not so active as it otherwise would have been.

WHEN A DRINK MAY BE TAKEN MEDICALLY.—After goose, or duck, or pork, Irish stew, or any delicacy of the Season into which onions may have seasoningly entered; invariably after Salmon; when there is any washing being done at home; when painters are in the house; when a person feels faint, and doesn't know what is the matter with him; when a friend turns up after an absence of several years; when a person has lost at cards, or when a person has come into a large property; when a person has met with a misfortune; when a person has quarrelled; when reconciliation has taken place; when a person is on a sea voyage, or goes on between the acts of a five act tragedy, or a coroner's inquest; or when you are sitting up for your wife; or when a friend drops in to smoke a segar; and in fact upon all suitable occasions of sadness and merriment, when a person feels rather low, or in very high spirits.

☞ An eccentric friend stepped into a store which shall be nameless, where some "colored brethren" were doing a little trading. "Ah, Mr ———," said our friend "you have your cousins in, I see." The young merchant said nothing but looked mad. Our friend stepped out, but in a few minutes returned, after the sable customers had departed, "I hope you won't take any offense at what I remarked just now," said he. "Oh, no," said the merchant, "I never take offense at anything you say." Glad of it," replied our quizzart, "the niggers are as mad as the d—l!" and then sloped, narrowly missing a flying yard stick.

☞ The Chicago Times says that almost every day, when the sun is at or near meridian and the sky clear, a beautiful optical illusion may be seen by looking westward in any of the east and west streets, where the view is uninterrupted for a long distance. Remote objects, as horses and vehicles appear suspended in the air or loom upward to colossal proportions. The illusion is produced by unequal refraction in the lower strata of the atmosphere, and its phases are occasionally very curious and interesting.

REVENGE AND GRATITUDE.—Revenge is longer lived than gratitude. Isadorse Mr. Smith's nose to keep him from falling, and he will forget all about it in a month. Pull Mr. Smith's nose, and he will cherish a secret desire to burn your house down for the remainder of his life. Revenge is a passion. Gratitude appears to be only a sentiment. We can all hate, but it is not one man in a hundred that that possesses principle enough to be thankful.

☞ In Belgium the cattle are inoculated with virus taken from the bodies of animals that died of pleuro-pneumonia, and out of 600 so inoculated, during the prevalence of the disease in that country, not one of them died. It is stated on good authority that the disease was imported into this country with some Alderney cattle which were disembarked at Boston.

☞ Somebody says that a lady should always ask the following four questions before accepting the hand of any young man:

Is he honorable?
Is he kind of heart?
Can he support me comfortably?
Does he take a newspaper and pay for it in advance?

☞ Thanksgiving morning, a widow lady was summoned to her door to receive a splendid turkey. "Who sent it?" asked the lady. "I was tould not to lisp," replied the Hibernian. "Ah, I can guess," responded the lady. "Bedad, that's just what I tould Deacon Grant."

☞ Humboldt once asked a cannibal if he had known a missionary whom he named to him.

"Well," said the Indian, "I ate of him."

RIOT AT BLAIRSVILLE.—Some time since, six slaves escaped from their masters in Hampshire county, Va., and travelled toward Canada, through the Western part of this State. On Monday of last week, a constable from Virginia and another person arrived in Blairsville, in search of the fugitives. After a tour around the town the men were returning to the hotel where they stopped, when they were attacked by a party of negroes and the constable badly beaten, being knocked down several times and having his clothes almost torn off him.

☞ Godey is on hand with his Lady's Book for July. Truly, this is a beautiful number, and justly entitles it to the appelation of "Queen of the Monthly Magazines." The frontispiece, a beautiful steel engraving entitled "Summer," is one of the handsomest the Book ever contained, and that is saying a great deal, for the Book has contained some beautiful engravings. Of course the ladies will be on the look out for the July number of Godey, and they will not be disappointed. Price $3 per annum. L. A. Godey, Phila.

IMMENSE EMIGRATION TO PIKE'S PEAK.—Three thousand and four teams, averaging five men to each, were met on the road to Pike's Peak last week, by the Platte route, between Denver and Kearney. Over six hundred teams were met between Fort Kearney and the Dissouri river—making three thousand more. It is estimated that five thousand had already arrived, showing a total of twenty-three thousand. It requires some calculation to estimate the precious metal which will satisfy the cupidity of this horde of gold seekers.

☞ We have received the first number of the Juniata True Democrat, and as we predicted it is one of the neatest papers in the country. We notice that friend Greer has associated with him, editorially, Mr. C. B. Harris, who promises to be a valuable assistant. We hope to see the True Democrat receive a hearty support from the Democracy of Juniata, as the publishers certainly deserve it.

☞ The indefatigable Effie Carstang, of breach of promise notoriety, has not yet had enough experience in courting.—She has tried Mr. Shaw twice, and is going to "do it again." Not satisfied with the verdict recently rendered against her, she applies for a new trial. Her "damages" must by this time be considerable, judging from the testimony in the last case.

THE SAW-LOG CANDIDATE.—As an offset to Abraham Lincoln's rail-splitting feats, the Decatur (Ill.) Magnet exhumes the following saw-log:

"We have recently seen a saw-log cut thirty years and three months since by Stephen A. Douglas, when he attended a saw-mill nights and Saturdays, and taught school the balance of the time. The log was somewhat decayed, yet the heart was sound, and from it we obtained a beautiful cane. The remainder of the log will be sent to Baltimore for inspection by the Southern delegates.

☞ The Japanese Embassy arrived at Philadelphia on Saturday afternoon last, and were received in magnificent style.—The entire military force of the city was under arms to do honor to the Oriental People's County Convention.

Pursuant to the call of the County Committee of the People's Party of Blair county, the delegates from the several townships, boroughs and wards met in convention in the Court House, in Hollidaysburg, on Tuesday, the 12th of June, 1860, and were organized by the election of Alexander M. Lloyd, Esq., as President, and David T. Caldwell and David Aurandt as Secretaries.

On motion, the delegations were called for, and were as follows:—

John McKeage,	19	25
Michael Grabill,	5	1
Samuel Hoover,	8	4

John McKeage, of Hollidaysburg, having received a majority of all the votes cast, was declared nominated.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

Resolved, That we have unabated regard for Hon. S. S. Blair, the honest and able representative of our District in Congress, and that we nominate him for re-election to said place, (subject to the decision of the People's Party Congressional Conference,) with authority to appoint Conferees to said Conference.

Resolved, That we all pledge ourselves to yield a cordial and hearty support to the County ticket this day nominated.

The following resolution was offered and adopted by a vote of 27 yeas to 13 nays:

Resolved, That we are in favor of a united effort—of a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether, against the party now misgoverning the country, squandering the public treasury and practicing corruption in every quarter; and that its overthrow is demanded by every consideration of patriotism and public virtue, and that to this end the Peoples' Party of Blair county will yield a cordial and hearty support to Abraham Lincoln, for President of the United States; to Hannibal Hamlin, for Vice President of the United States, and to Andrew G. Curtin, for Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—as men of eminent ability and worth, pledged to preserve the integrity of the Union—to bring back the Government to the principles and practices of its fathers and founders—to promote retrenchment and reform—and to advance the cause of Protection to American industry and the dignity of Free Labor.

A motion was made to adopt the resolution unanimously, which was lost, the vote being the same as before.

On motion the Convention adjourned sine die

☞ A locomotive recently ran away on the West Cornwall line in England. The throttle-valve having been inadvertently left open, and a fire kindled in the furnace, the attendant went away for a few moments; on his return it had left town, and only ran out of breath at a station some sixteen miles distant, having rushed down some steep inclines, and over sharp curves, at the rate of sixty miles per hour. It tore up and smashed through a large number of gates, but with this exception did no damage whatever, and was quietly led back to its stall without having been made permanently vicious in its tricks, in which particular it manifested another decided improvement of steam over horse.

FEMALE IN THE RING.—A disgraceful exhibition took place near New York on Tuesday, between two boys named Pardee and Odell, each about seventeen years old, having engaged in a prize fight for $20, in the presence of about one hunded spectators. On the sixth round Odell knocked his antagonist down, leaving him in such a condition that he could not come to the scratch when time was called. At this Pardee's mother, who was on the ground, became so exasperated that she sprang into the ring, and expressed a desire to fight the victor herself. The cry being raised that the police were coming, all hands took to their heels.

☞ We copy from the Utica Telegraph the following receipt for the preservation of plum trees from the ravages of an insect that sometimes does great damage:

Take a tin pail, punch holes through the bottom, adjust it to a pole that will reach above the top of the tree. Fill the pail with air-slacked lime, and hold it above the tree, in the morning before the dew is off, strike lightly on the pole, sprinkling the lime over the tree. Repeat this operation, say about three times, and your plum crop is safe. Curculio will not work where lime is.

☞ During the shower on Wednesday afternoon, says the Newport (N. H.) Republican, the lightning struck the house occupied by Mrs. Ebenezer Hazleton, Sunapee. Mrs. H. was standing near the stove when the lightning struck the chimney, descended, split the stove in pieces, and instantly killed Mrs. Hazleton. She was about sixty-five years of age. About six years ago a son of hers was killed on the Finchburg Railroad, soon after a nephew was drowned, five years ago her husband took his own life, and now the wife and mother, by a violent death, is sent to meet her kindred in eternity.

ANOTHER WARNING.—The Fort Madison Plaindealer, of the 28th, reports a somewhat extraordinary case of blasphemy and sudden death that occurred near Farmington, Van Buren county, a few days previous. A farmer living there, while talking to a neighbor, about the dry weather, began an outburst of the most terrible blasphemy, using the vilest epithets toward the Almighty and the Saviour, because He did not send rain. The man was going on in frightful language, when all at once his jaws became paralyzed, his tongue became powerless, his voice ceased and he fell on the earth a corpse.

☞ At Farmington, Iowa, last Sunday, a little girl four years old was carried by a sudden gust of wind and lodged in a cherry tree a few rods distant, her clothes having caught in the branches of the tree, where she remained unhurt. The anxious father ran to and fro seeking her, when the little innocent, dripping with rain, peeped down through the branches of the cherry tree, exclaiming—"I'm here, pa."

☞ The greatest trot ever made was accomplished by the gallant bay mare, "Flora Temple," on the Union Course, Long Island, on Wednesday last, in a contest with a famous bay horse called "Geo. M. Patchen." The race was closely contested, but Flora won each mile heat, the time being 2.21, 2.24 and 2.21½, respectively. The first heat is said to be the best time ever made on that course.

Dragged to Death by a Cow.

A terrible accident occurred in the town of Delhi, Deleware county, New York, a week ago, which resulted in the death of a little girl seven years old. The parties to the sad occurrence were William Scott, a lad seventeen years old, and his half-sister Elizabeth Doby, the victim. The boy had been sent to take the cow to pasture, the little girl accompanying him. He had with him a piece of rope with which he was to bring back some hay. On his way he playfully tied one end of the rope around the body of his sister, and the other end to the cows tail. When the cow had proceeded a short distance in this way, followed by the girl, the latter stumbled and fell, which so frightened the cow that she ran off at a furious rate, dragging the poor girl after her. After running some distance the girl's head struck a solid rock, crushing in the skull, and at the same time the cow's tail pulled out, so great was the force of the resistance. The girl was also badly cut around the face, neck and head. She was taken up by the boy and carried home, where she breathed but two or three times before expiring. The boy is said to be rather deficient in intellect, and it is not supposed that he realized the imminent danger in which his sister was placed by his mischevious conduct.

AN AWFUL WARNING.—We recently heard related the particulars of an occurrence which can only be looked upon as an instance of Divine rebuke for taking the name of the Almighty in justification of a falsehood. We suppress the names and localities of the parties, who are respectable persons. It appears that the aunt of a young girl about eighteen years of age, accused her of having been guilty of some misconduct, which she positively denied, and on being again accused, she called upon God to strike her blind if she was not telling the truth. In a moment after, according to her own statement, a film seemed to pass before her eyes, and in five minutes she was totally blind, and has continued sightless ever since. The afflicted victim of her own impiety confessed that she had called upon her Maker to justify her in what was a falsehood. May not this be considered as a terrible instance of Divine wrath, and may not the thoughtless take warning?—Balt. Clipper.

A COURAGEOUS WOMAN.—Wednesday night, about 11 o'clock, a woman named Jane Manahan, wife of Philip Manahan, of Boston, having laid down in her sleeping room to await her husband's return, heard a noise in the room, and on arising, discovered a burglar in the act of securing such valuables as he could lay his hands on. Without screaming, or manifesting the least alarm, she sprang for him, but he took to his legs and ran down stairs.—She pursued him, caught him, and, on his attempting to knock her down, gave him a severe whipping, "punishing" him severely about the face. She then made him sit down on a chair, and kept him there half an hour, till her husband's return, when officer Kinsley was called in, and he was arrested. He was a stout-looking young fellow, and gave the name of James McCullion.

☞ Sam Slick says: Yes, yes, nature balances all things admirably, and has put the sexes and every individual of each on a par. Them that have more than their share of one thing commonly have less of another. When there is great strength there ain't apt to be much gumption. A handsome man in a general way ain't much of a man. A beautiful bird seldom sings. Them that has genius have no common sense. A fellow with one idea grows rich, while he who calls him a fool dies poor. The world is like a baked meet pie; the upper crust is rich, dry and puffy; the lower crust is heavy, doughy and undone; the middle is not bad generally; but the smallest part of all is that which flavors the whole.

CONGRESS TO ADJOURN.—Both houses of Congress have made up their minds to adjourn on the 18th inst. Congress has been in session over six months, and during that period they have discussed slavery daily in some form or other, and have done but little else in regard to any great practical question of general interest. The Presidential canvass requiring them, they now adjourn, and transfer to the stump the discussions which have occupied their time in Washington so long. There will be one advantage in this adjournment. The newspapers will not be filled with their speeches, and the public may have something else to read and think about than slavery.

FROM THE OIL REGION.—The Pittsburgh True Press is informed that a gentleman on Third street, who owns a tract of land in Venango county, recently visited that place for the purpose of prospecting for oil. In one locality, after penetrating only ten feet, he struck a rich vein of "flaxseed oil," and in another locality the surface indications of "New Orleans Molasses" were regarded as unmistakable. He is about sinking a well in the saccharine district, and expects to strike a vein of "Boston Syrup" at the depth of about thirty feet. Great excitement prevailed, and intelligent grocers anticipated an immediate decline in the price of "treacle."

☞ We mentioned, a few days since, one death from gluttony, in eating a preposterous number of hard boiled eggs, and now we have to chronicle a similar case. At the parade of the Gregory Guards, in Jersey City, on Friday last, a Mr. Hopper, one of the members of the corps, ate twenty hard boiled eggs, and washed them down with copious potations of lager beer. He died from indigestion after a short period of suffering.

PEN AND SCISSORS.

☞ A fast horse—one chained to a post.

☞ Hessian butter is the latest novelty. Of course it is very strong.

☞ Physicians' prescriptions are now called "death warrants" in Latin.

☞ The Legislature of Rhode Island adjourned on Friday, after a session of four days.

☞ It is stated that $3,718,000 worth of new buildings are now in course of erection in New York city.

☞ The New Jersey peach crop promises better. The Newark Journal says it will turn out well.

☞ Nagle, the rope walker, performed in Hollidaysburg, on Wednesday last.

☞ Reminds us of rural life—the hay-making operations in the lot opposite our office.

☞ Disappeared—Quite a number of the canine population within the last few days.

☞ Tom Buckley, the "Limerick Boy," has just successfully accomplished his feat of walking 100 hours, without rest or sleep, at Pittsburgh.

☞ Mr. R. Rathmacher, of this place, had an excellent cow killed on the Branch Road, a short distance from town, one day last week.

☞ Preparations are being made for holding a grand encampment at Huntingdon next fall, beginning on the 24th of September, and to continue one week.

☞ A young man named James Dean, aged 18 years, fell off a swing at Mapleton station, Huntingdon county, a few days since, and was almost instantly killed.

☞ The proceedings of Congress on Friday show that Mr. Frank P. Blair, of Missouri, has obtained his seat in Congress, which he has so long contested.

☞ The printers at Pike's Peak have struck for higher wages. They want $100 per month, and they have been receiving $75. Day labor at the Peak is from $2 to $3.

☞ Accounts from Key West say that the captured Africans are dying so fast that not more than 700 or 800 will be left out of all the cargoes to send back.

☞ It is estimated that over 100,000 barrels of oil are now ready for market in the oil regions of Northwestern Pennsylvania.

☞ Invitations for Pic Nics, Parties, &c., executed at the Tribune office in handsome style, at short notice, and reasonable terms.

☞ An individual was arrested the other day while endeavoring to pick a man's pocket. He said he wasn't used to the business, and was just trying to get his hand in.

☞ The twelve monster steamboats in which locked up capital to the amount of not less than two millions of dollars, are now lying idle at the docks at Chicago, Buffalo, and other lake ports.

☞ The United States Agricultural Society has had prepared, for presentation to the Japanese Embassy, a collection of field and garden seeds, embracing nearly one hundred varieties.

☞ The New York Herald says that the German vote, deducting 15 per cent. for non-naturalized citizens, will amount in the next Presidential election from 1,010,000 to 1,030,000 votes.

☞ The bark Wildfire, recently captured with a cargo of Africans, is said to have been owned and fitted out by a Boston house, who anticipated clearing some $200,000 by the operation.

☞ Strawberries are exceedingly abundant in all the cities east and west, and selling at from 4 to 8 cents per box. How comes it that those brought to this place are sold at 25 cents per box? There must be some profit in the trade.

☞ The London correspondent of the New York Herald says:—"The coup de grace has just been given to the unfairness in the Heenan and Sayers fight by the referee acknowledging to a friend that he had $100 bet on the result."

☞ U. J. Jones, Esq., of Hollidaysburg, has assumed the control of the reportorial department of the Harrisburg Patriot and Union. We expect to note a great improvement in the local department of the paper mentioned, as Mr. J. is one of the spiciest writers in the country. We welcome him to the tripod again.

☞ He denies it—Heenan, in a private letter to America, says that he was never married, and the women who had claimed his name are all impostors. Alas, for poor Ada Isaak Menken Heenan! What becomes of her devotion to the "best and bravest of men?"

☞ On the evening before their departure from Washington, several of the Japanese servants were seen about Willard's in a state of shameful intoxication. The Princes are alarmed lest this love of drink will spread among their followers to a serious extent.

☞ The Troy Budget understands that John Morrissey, the pugilist, is to go immediately into training at the "Abbey," with a view of fighting Heenan in August. He has left New York, and expresses his determination to vanquish the Champion of the world, notwithstanding he (Morissey) is threatened with consumption.

☞ The Government has purchased the present site of the post office in New York city, and arrangements will be speedily made for the erection of a suitable and commodious building. The price paid for the site is $250,000, of which $50,000 was contributed by merchants, as Congress only appropriated $200,000 for the purchase.

☞ Geo. W. Scott, Esq., a valued and highly respected resident of Toledo, last week flung himself into a pond, and drowned. He was a man said to be worth $60,000 in property and funds, and did not owe a dime. Of late he has thought that he should be brought to want, and the idea has culminated in his effecting self-destruction.

☞ In a contest between two dogs and a panther, at Matanzas, Cuba, the proprietor of the latter, finding his animal over-matched and evidently getting the worst of it, shot the dogs with an air-gun. For this he was compelled to give up the whole of the money taken at the door, in all amounting to $400 50, for the benefit of the poor.

☞ A cow raised by Reuben Myers, of Cheltenham tp., Montgomery county, and by him sold to a butcher of Frankford, was killed a few days ago for market. Before slaughtering her, she was weighed and drew 1710. After being dressed she weighed 1003 pounds, being 59 to the 100 live weight. She yielded 106 pounds of rough fat. Her age was four years and she had been fattened nine months.

☞ Mr. Smith, a pious and promising young lawyer, recently offered the following resolution at a Sunday School Convention, in Ohio:

"Resolved, That a committee of ladies and gentlemen be appointed to raise children for the Sabbath School."

Several young men in this place are anxious for an appointment on that committee.

☞ Mr. John Glenn, of South Woodberry township, Bedford county, while engaged in cutting down some bushes in his garden, was struck in the face by the branch of a thorn, striking one of his eyes exactly in the centre, and instantly destroying the pupil. The wounded eye has almost totally disappeared; and, singular to relate, Mr. Glenn has suffered but little pain from the mishap.

☞ The Shirleysburg Herald is in error in stating that the Altoona Tribune is "down" on the Chicago platform. We never expressed our opinion on that document. We don't care whether Bell and Everett stand on the Baltimore platform or any other platform, or ever have or have not belonged to the American party. We merely expressed what we conceived to be the feeling in this place, not our own opinions. Do you understand?

☞ Bloody Affray.—A few days ago, an affray occurred at Warrentown, Miss., which resulted in the killing of Dr. J. N. Selser and his brother-in-law, Wm. De Griffin, a painter, at the hands of Dr. T. ☞ Robert H. Bowers, a desperate and reckless character, who had recently served out a sentence in the penitentiary for counterfeiting, induced Eliza Paine, a young and pretty girl of Cleveland, Ohio, to go riding with him, on the 16th ult., when he brutally assaulted her and violated her person. Last Sunday night Bowers met Thomas Paine, a brother of the girl he had treated so infamously, and a fight at once began, during which Bowers was stabbed, and died the following evening from the wound. Paine made his escape.

☞ At a public "tea party," recently held in one of our country towns, where "sentiments" were in order, a timid bachelor was bold enough to remind the ladies that leap year was upon them by offering the following:

To which a lady promptly responded as follows:

The man without courage to do his own wooing,
May do his own washing, and baking and sewing.

The bachelor looked despair.

BLOOD FOOD! BLOOD FOOD!

We have varied feelings in reading the advertisement of Dr. Bronson's Blood Food, in another column; but we think gratification predominates; for, though we regret to see so celebrated a man coming forward, even in appearance, under the same flag as quacks—that is, by resorting to advertising—yet we take satisfaction also in knowing that there is now a reliable preparation before the people for that most melancholy and fatal disease—Consumption, and other organic complaints.

Dr. Bronson is a lecturer in our Medical Colleges, and his success in his speciality has been so wonderful that he has consented, at variance with the prejudices of every regular practitioner, to make it known, as he is doing, for the benefit of suffering humanity.

He has stock for Agents, however, a firm whose respectability separates entirely his preparations from all tinge of quackery. Messrs. Carmen & Dupuy are his sole managers, as they are also to that most invaluable of preparations, Dr. Eaton's Infantile Cordial. If mothers could know the great care taken in putting up this article—some idea of which they can form by comparison of it with any other article of the kind—they would prefer it to anything that has ever been offered them. For our own part, if we had a child suffering, we would not hesitate to administer this preparation, knowing that such careful druggists would not engage in anything that was not perfectly safe and ineffectual.—Quebec Gazette.

HOLLAND BITTERS.

A Medicine of long tried efficacy for purifying the blood, essential for the foundation of good health, and for correcting disorders of the stomach and bowel—such as

Indigestion,	Headache,
Heart-Burn,	Loss of Appetite,
Acidity,	Bilious Complaints,
Water-Brash,	Cramps,
Costiveness,	Colic,
Piles,	Summer Complaint, &c.

In Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic affections it has frequently been administered with marked success.

Two or three doses will convince the afflicted of its salutary effects—the stomach will speedily regain its strength, a healthy action of the liver, bowels and kidneys will rapidly take place, and renewed health be the quick result.

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

Intrinsic virtue alone could insure the success which this article has attained. For Rheumatism, Salt Rheum, Burns, Bruises, Stiff Joints, or Galds, Sprain, Poll Evil and Swellings upon Horses, it has no equal. No person will be without who has once tested its value. "And with reference to the general estimation of the Mustang Liniment, I can cheerfully say that no article ever performed so many cures in our neighborhood as this. L. W. SMITH, Ringfield, Conn." S. LEITCH, Esq., Hyde Park, Pa., writes, "that the horse was considered worthless, (his case was spavin,) but since the free use of the Mustang Liniment I have sold him for $150. Your Liniment is doing wonders up here." Such testimony is reaching us every day. The half is not told. Every family should have it. Beware of imitations. The genuine Mustang is sold by all respectable dealers throughout the world.

☞ Nature is the great physician. This is now admitted by the medical profession, as a fundamental principle of healing science. It is wisely provided by the Human economy, that whenever anything is wrong in the human system, the natural forces of the body are brought to bear to expel the disease. The great aim, therefore, is to strengthen the natural powers. This has been kept in view by the skillful compounders of Dr. J. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, which operate to give fresh vitality to all the organs of the body. The effects of this medicine upon the stomach, the liver and the kidneys, are prompt and decisive. The patient who is wise enough to quit drugging, and try the Bitters soons feels as if he had taken a new lease of life, and as he continues the use of the article, he is overjoyed to find the streams of health coursing through his frame. Let all from whose cheek the bloom of health has departed, give Dr. J. Hostetter's Bitters a trial. Sold by druggists and dealers generally, everywhere.

REPORTED EXPRESSLY FOR, AND PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY IN THE ALTOONA TRIBUNE.

A stated meeting of the Council was held June 7th, 1860. Present, A. A. Smyth, Ralph Greenwood, J. A. McDowell and Dan'l F. Laughman, Council, and Wm. C. McCormick, Chief Burgess.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

The Secretary presented a statement of the amounts due each of the laborers for work performed repairing streets for the month of May, which was read—whereupon, on motion,

Resolved, That the Secretary is hereby directed to make out orders for the respective sums due each.

Orders were then made out for the following persons, to wit: John McClelland, Jesse Groves, Daniel Coyle, Peter Smith, Thomas Price and Jno. Davis.

A bill was presented by John Cunningham for lumber, amounting to $4 07, which was read, and an order for the same granted.

A bill was laid before the Council by the Secretary, from James Hooper, blacksmith, for making and repairing tools for the use of the Borough, amounting to $6 80, which was read and an order granted.

A bill was presented by Messrs. McCrum & Dern, for sundry printing done for the Town Council from March, 1859, to this date, amounting to $44, which was read, and,

On motion, an order was granted for that portion of said bill contracted for by the late Council, amounting to $35 00.

A proposition was received from McCrum & Dern for publishing the minutes of the Council in the "Altoona Tribune," which was read and accepted.

On motion of R. Greenwood and seconded by J. A. McDowell, it was Resolved, That a committee of two be appointed to confer with the "Altoona Gas and Water Company," in relation to a bill presented to Council for Water rent and rent of fire-plugs, and report to Council at their next meeting.

Whereupon W. C. McCormick and A. A. Smyth were duly appointed said Committee.

An article of agreement was presented and read between the Penn'a Railroad Company and the Town Council of Altoona Borough, for the construction of a culvert by said Company along the old Hollidaysburg Branch Railroad, commencing at a point where Allegheny street crosses said Branch track, and along the southeast side of said track to a point at the junction of Caroline street.

On motion, Resolved, That when certain other additional specifications are added and fully understood, that the said agreement be signed by Wm. C. McCormick, Chief Burgess, and A. A. Smyth, President of the Council.

On motion, Resolved, That the Secretary be herewith directed to make out a duplicate of Borough taxes for the present year, and to lay the legally authorized tax on all dogs and sluts, owned, kept, or harbored within the limits of the Borough, in accordance with Ordinance No. 3 of said Borough, and that the Borough Constable be authorized to collect the same.

And it was, further, on motion, Resolved, That from and after the 15th day of June inst., Ordinance No. 4—an ordinance relative to horses, cattle and swine in said Borough—be strictly enforced, and that the Borough Constable provide a convenient enclosure or pound for the safe keeping of all strays found running at large, until the requirements of said Ordinance in relation thereto is fully complied with.

And further, for the information of the citizens generally, the Chief Burgess is hereby requested to have the two Ordinances, Nos. 3 and 4, printed in hand-bill form, and posted up in the most public places in said Borough as soon as they can be procured.

On motion, Council adjourned to meet again on Thursday evening, June 21st, 1860, at 7 o'clock.—Extract from the Minutes.

A MARKET HOUSE.—We have frequently referred to the subject of a Market House in this place, but no little attention has been given to the matter that we had determined to say nothing more about it until some action had been taken in reference thereto by some of our citizens. A day or two since, however, we were requested to call up the subject again and endeavor to get the people of this place interested in it. Now we can say nothing more than we have said to interest the people. We have appealed to their pockets, (supposed to be the tenderest point) and to their love of luxuries, (supposed to be the next tenderest,) and yet they won't wake up. Undoubtedly the Market House would afford us an opportunity of getting much better marketing at a much more reasonable rate than we now pay for it, and those who have lived where there were market houses know this, but they won't wake up and help to get one in Altoona. Wake up! wake up! gentlemen; come right along and let us have a meeting and the matter talked over. Some of you may laugh as you did when we talked about the gas and water works, but if we make up our minds to have a Market House we'll have it, just as sure as we have the gas and water works. Now don't begin to laugh before the laugh comes in, for if we will we will, and if we won't we won't.

M. E. S. S. PIC NIC.—The teachers and scholars connected with the Methodist Sabbath School in this place have determined upon having a pic nic on Thursday next, in one of the groves contiguous to town. We hope they may have a clear day and a pleasant time.

WHAT SHOULD BE DONE.—In towns like ours, which have been built up in a few years, many improvements are needed and these cost money. It ever has been, and probably ever will be the case, that in making any considerable improvements, and in throwing off the influence of old fogyism, there are great differences of opinion. So far as this is concerned, we presume it is right for men to differ, and a little argument on mooted points often bring out that which is new to both parties, but that these differences should be kept up and urged until nothing for the good of the place is done, is certainly wrong. Every man should remember that his neighbor is as justly entitled to his opinion as any man, and every one should be willing to be governed by what the majority says. The growth and importance, as well as the health and convenience of our town greatly depends upon the way we move in matters of public importance, hence the great necessity of unity.

An effective and thoroughly working corporation will do much for our good, if they are not opposed at every street corner by some advocate of old fogyism, or some penurious individual who intimates that such and such improvements will cost too much and run up the taxes. We do not advocate a corporation that will levy a burdensome tax for its support, but one that will ask sufficient to meet the real wants, and continue a steady improvment of our streets from year to year, just as we can stand it. We know our streets need much repairing to keep them even in passable order, and the money thus spent is almost thrown away. The improvements made should be permanent, even though they cost double or thribble.

Our present borough officers are disposed to do their whole duty, and we hope they may not be met by such opposition as will deter them from doing it. We can not have all parts of the town improved at the same time, unless our citizens will submit to a grevious tax, consequently the Council should be allowed to make the improvements where it is deemed most necessary and where they will contribute the greatest good to the greatest number.

THE CHEAPEST PRINTING.—Our cotemporary of the Independent Phœnix, says that the sagacious business man is as particular about the style and quality of his printing as he is respecting his person, and would no more permit his Bill-head or his card to be done on the poorest paper with worn out type and muddy ink, than he would allow his clerks to insult his customers, or sell them damaged goods for perfect. The enterprising merchant, who prides himself upon the neatness of his store and the quality of his stock, cannot tolerate a botched job, and reasons truly that he is responsible for the appearance of everything bearing his name. The cheapest kind of printing is that which is clear neat and inviting—done upon the best cards or paper, with the best ink. Such printing always gives satisfaction, and if it costs double that of the inferior kind, it is by far the cheaper. You can hand a customer your card or present him with your bill, without a feeling that your name and business are disgraced; and this feeling will pay you a hundred times over for the original outlay. Such printing can always be had at short notice at the office of the Altoona Tribune.

THAT'S SO.—Heaven help the man who imagines that he can dodge "enemies" by trying to please everybody. If such an individual ever succeeded we should be glad to know it.—Not that we believe in a man's going through the world trying to find a beam to knock his head against; disputing every man's opinion; fighting and elbowing and crowding all who differ from him. That is only another extreme. Other people have a right to their opinions, so have you to yours; don't fall into the error of supposing that they will respect you more for turning your coat every day to match theirs.—Wear your own colors, spite of wind and weather, storm and sunshine. It costs the vacillating and irresolute ten times the trouble to wind and shuffle and twist, that it does honest, manly independence to stand his ground.

FINE CATTLE.—One day last week we noticed M. Runyan, butcher in this place, driving past our office a lot of some eighteen of the finest cattle, taken all together, that we have seen in this place. They were reared in the lower end of Sinking Valley and Canoe Valley, in this county, and would compare favorably with the best cattle ever brought from the east or west. They will all dress from 800 to 1,000 lbs. clean meat. Mr. Runyan is now serving them out in slices to his customers every Tuesday and Saturday morning. We have tried a few cuts of the steaks and roasts they furnish and consider them the sweetest and richest we have ever tasted.

THE LATEST INVENTION.—Some "cute" Yankee has invented what he calls the "Patent Never-Failing Garden Preserver, or Hen-Walker." The invention consists of a small instrument, something like a spur, only considerably longer, which is attached to the hind part of the hen's legs, pointing to an angle of forty-five degrees toward the ground. When the hen, with this instrument on her legs, enters the garden in the spring after seeds, and puts her foot forward to scratch, the "walker" catches in the ground and forces her forward; and thus she is walked, in her efforts to scratch, entirely out of the garden. He has applied for a patent.

☞ We often hear the expression, "keep cool," but so variously is it applied that we doubt whether the Japanese would be fairly able to comprehend it were they to protract their stay several months. The best way we have yet found to arrive at a conclusion as to what it really does mean, was to drop in at Taylor's saloon, next door to the Bank, and partake of a saucer of the delicious ice cream there served up. Try it on, neighbor, and you will find the real definition of the term.

☞ The reason why the number of students attending the Iron City College is so much larger than in other schools, their work is so complete in style and finish, and their success in business so uniform and complete, is because each student receives the direct personal attention of the Principals throughout the entire course of study.—Daily True Press.

SLANDER ABOUT WOMEN.—We adopt the following "hint," which we find floating around at random on the sea of newspaperdom, as a genuine "home item," and we wish all our readers may suffer them to be ever present in their memories. We have probably, all of us met with instances in which a word heedlessly spoken against the reputation of a female, has been circulated by malicious minds until the clouds have become dark enough to overshadow her whole existence. To those who are accustomed—not necessarily from bad motives, but from thoughtlessness—to speak lightly about females, we recommend this "hint" as worthy of consideration:

"Never use a lady's name at an improper time, or in mixed company. Never make assertions about her that you think are untrue, allusions that you feel she herself would blush to hear. When you meet with men who do not scruple to make use of a woman's name in a reckless and unprincipled manner, shun them, for they are the worst members of a community—men lost to every sense of honor—every feeling of humanity. Many a good and worthy woman's character has been forever ruined, and her heart broken, by a lie manufactured by some villian, and repeated where it should not have been, and in the presence of those whose little judgement could not deter them from circulating the foul and bragging report. A slander is soon propagated, and the smallest thing derogatory to a woman's character will fly on the wings of the wind, and magnify as it circulates, until its enormous weight crushes the unconscious victim. Respect the name of woman; for your mother and sisters are women, and as you would have their fair names untarnished, and their fair lives unembittered by slander's bitter tongue, heed the ill that your own words may bring upon the mother, sister or wife of some other fellow creature."

CURIOUS AND INSTRUCTIVE.—On Tuesday evening last we visited Shultz's Hall to witness the skill of Mr. Porzel in the art of glass blowing, and we must say that we have not witnessed anything so deeply interesting, in many years. In Mr. P.'s hands the glass takes any shape he imagines, forming birds, trees, globes, &c., in a short time; and the blending together of different colored glass makes his productions the most beautiful of mantal ornaments. To those who desire to witness a truly interesting exhibition, and can appreciate the beautiful and artistic combined combined, we say go to Shultz's Hall any afternoon or evening this week, and witness the performances of Mr. P. in glass blowing. Most persons have seen intricate pieces of workmanship in glass, and have wondered how they were made. The whole will be made plain by calling at the Hall and witnessing the performance of Mr. P., who is a skillful workman and fully understands the art.—To the ladies this work is particularly interesting, and every attention will be shown those who attend the exhibitions.

DOWN ON THE DOGS.—From the notices posted up about town, our citizens will observe that the Town Council and Chief Burgess intend to enforce the Ordinances heretofore passed in relation to the taxation of dogs, and also to take up all estray horses, mules, oxen, hogs, &c., found running at large. This is right. There are a few too many hogs running about our streets. As to the dogs, we could dispense with about every other without our citizens being in the least discommoded. We love a good dog, but the miserable, mangy curs that are suffered to run at large, could all be made a head shorter, and no loss be experienced. We know that some of them will soon be minus their heads if Joe Ely gets after them, and there be no one to "sock up" for them.

"Mongrel, puppy, whelp and hound,
And cur of low degree,"

ACCIDENT.—A miner, named Thomas Edwards, was seriously injured on Monday afternoon in Wood, Morrell & Co's ore bank, near this place, by the premature explosion of a blast. In addition to being severely burned about the face, breast and arms, he suffered a compound fracture of the right fore arm, and one of his legs was severely cut and the bone somewhat injured. He also sustained several lesser cuts and bruises. His wounds were dressed by Dr. Leisenring, and he is recovering as rapidly as their nature will permit. He had been in the employ of W., M. & Co. only a day or two, and had but recently arrived in this country.—Standard.

MECHANICS' PIC NIC.—The arrangements for this affair, heretofore noticed, are progressing finely, and it will no doubt be a pleasant day to those who participate. It comes off on Saturday next, in Beales' woods, about half a mile south of town. We like to see people enjoy themselves, and have no doubt that this pic nic will be well attended. Good music has been secured for the occasion, and those who desire to "trip the light fantastic toe" on nature's carpet, can have an opportunity to do so. The dinner will be served up by Mr. Hileman, of the White Hall Hotel, and will be well worth partaking of.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday week, Michael Travers, a laborer on the Pennsylvania Railroad, in attempting to jump upon an engine which was in motion, near Barree station, fell with one of his legs across the rail, and was caught just at the ankle by the wheels of the tender. His ankle was badly crushed. He was brought to this place on the Mail train, on the evening of the same day, and placed under the care of Dr. J. T. Christy. The Dr. thinks he will be able to save the foot and avoid the necessity of amputation.

☞ George M. Smith has just received at his confectionary and fruit store, on the corner of Main and Caroline streets, a large stock of candies, fruits, nuts, fire-works, &c., for the glorious Fourth. George has now the finest establishment of the kind in town. He is prepared to furnish any amount of confectionaries at wholesale at reasonable prices. Give him a call and you will be sure to select something from his stock!

J. S. PIC NIC.—The old camp of Junior Sons of America, in this place, held a pic nic in the grove at El Dorado station, on the Branch road, on Monday last. They were accompanied by the Altoona Brass Band, and any number of rosy-cheeked lasses. As the day was delightfully fine, we doubt not they had a pleasant time.—Go it while you're young, boys.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP—THREE CHILDREN CURED OF WHOOPING COUGH.—Three of my children were very bad with whooping cough, for which we tried several remedies for it without relief. The first few doses of Pectoral Syrup gave relief, and cured the urgent symptoms. I used but one bottle, which cured them so far as to relieve the whooping cough entirely.

ANOTHER CURE OF MYSELF.—I took the Pectoral at the same time for a cough, two doses of which cured me entirely. This is all the result of one bottle.

GONE EAST.—H. Fettinger, of the Literary Emporium, intends leaving for the city in a few days, to lay in his supplies of knick knacks for the coming fourth of July. He will bring a little of everything worth mentioning or that may be called for. He understands the wants and patriotic proclivities of the people of this section. Look out for Fet and his knick knacks.

P. S. Fet is now selling his present stock of goods at cost, and bargains may be had by calling this week.

ARRESTED.—A young man named Jesse Kooken has been arrested at Johnstown, charged with being the person who has been doing the cellar robbing in that place for some time past. Probably he is the same person who carried on a like business here, some time since, under the name of Jesse Cogen.

☞ Desirous of closing out my present business for the purpose of engaging in professional pursuits, I now offer my entire stock of Books, Music, &c., for sale at cost. Any one wishing to take my situation and continue the trade will receive liberal offers by making an early application. H. SMITH.

NOTICE TO BUILDERS, MERCHANTS AND OTHERS.

ORDINANCE NO. 15.

WHEREAS, great inconvenience and serious trouble frequently occur to the citizens of the Borough of Altoona, often ending in vexatious litigation, and in many cases encroachments are made on the streets, lanes and alleys, by those building houses and putting up other improvements. And whereas, complaints have been made to the Town Council by a number of the citizens of said Borough, that obstructions are permitted to exist on the side walks and pavements interfering with pedestrians, and trespassing upon the private rights of individuals, greatly detrimental to their comfort and business operations, by Merchants and other dealers, and the keepers of Clothing stores, by an improper exposure of their goods, wares and merchandize, in front of their stores, and by putting up signs and awnings too low, across the sidewalks and pavements,

Therefore, Be it ordained by the Town Council of the Borough of Altoona, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That hereafter all persons, owners of, or agents for, lots of ground within the limits of said Borough, wishing to put up buildings or improvements of any kind, intending to erect the same up to the line of the sidewalk, pavements or alleys, desiring an outlet for water from cellars, stables, sewers, pumps or hydrants, shall, before breaking ground, apply to the Supervisor, or President of Council, for a regular permit for whatever privileges may be necessary thereto. And in default there of, the Supervisor is hereby instructed, and required, to report the same immediately to the Council, who shall prosecute the person or persons so offending, and on conviction thereof, before the Chief Burgess or a Justice of the Peace, the person or persons found guilty shall forfeit and pay a fine not exceeding Ten Dollars for each offence, to be collected as sums of like amount are by law recoverable, for the use of the said Borough.

And further, it is hereby ordained by the authority aforesaid, that hereafter, all persons desiring to erect awnings or put up sign boards, across any of the side walks or pavements of said Borough, shall, previously to the erecting or putting up, apply to the proper officer for a permit; and no awning or sign board, so put up, shall be lower than 10 feet from the surface or level of the sidewalk or pavement, and shall leave the gable ends of all awnings open. And also, the owers and occupants of all awnings or signs now erected or put up, extending across the pavements or sidewalks of said Borough, are hereby required to have the same altered so as to fully meet the requirements of this Ordinance by raising them to the proper height.

And also, any person or persons, company, or society, trading, marketing, or merchandising, or using any of the sidewalks or pavements within the limits of the said Borough, for exhibiting their wares and merchandise or otherwise, shall at no time occupy more than five feet of the sidewalk or pavement, and in all cases that portion of the pavement or sidewalk next to their own houses; and every person offending against the provisions of this Ordinance for the space of ten days after being duly notified by the Supervisor, shall, upon conviction thereof before the Chief Burgess or a Justice of the Peace, be fined in a sum no exceeding Ten Dollars for every such offence, for the use of the said Borough, to be recovered as debts of a like amount are by law recoverable.

Passed May 10th, 1860—to take effect June 10th, 1860.

A BOOK FOR PIONEERS.—THE CENTRAL GOLD REGION. The Grain, Pastoral, and Gold Regions of North America, with some New Views of its Physical Geography, and Observations on the Pacific Railroad. By WILLIAM GILPIN, late of U. S. Army. Illustrated by numerous maps.

It proves that the immense region lying between the Eastern Cordilleras and the Mississippi River has a climate and soil capable of supporting and enriching the most dense population in the world.

It points out the existence of GOLD and PRECIOUS METALS in mass, in locations yet unoccupied, and in quantities far beyond the most sanguine anticipations of those seeking for it, capable of yielding a million of dollars per day. THE ONLY PREPARATION

Having Proofs so strong and direct as to

EXPEL THE DOUBTS OF ALL.

For Statesmen, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest school as well as new, give it their unqualified sanction, and recommend it for all cases of eruptions, and diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore. Read the following:—

Oak Grove, S. C. June 24th, 1859.

PROF. O. J. WOOD: Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a perfect test.—

During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road-side, from which my head received a most terrible blow; causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effects of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a professional man myself, and, as I thought, understanding the nature of the disease, but was finally defeated in every prescription advanced.

These and no other circumstances induced me to resort to your worthy Hair Reaforative, which I have every reason to believe, produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I cordially owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not a little.

You can publish this if you think proper.

Yours, very respectfully, M. J. WRIGHT, M. D.

Office of the Jeffersonian, Philippi, Va., Dec. 12th, 1858.

Dear sir.—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstance, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth; so much so, that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and as he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give it to you at the request of Mr. Bradford. You can sell a great deal of your Hair Restorative in this and the adjoining counties if you have the proper agents. Yours, &c.,

THOMPSON SURGHNOR.

DR. WOOD: Dear Sir: Permit me to express the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.

S. THALBERG.

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes; viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3.

RED LION HOTEL,

ALTOONA, BLAIR COUNTY, PA.

This old established and popular HOTEL, located nearly opposite the place of stopping the passenger cars in Altoona, has passed into the hands of the present proprietor.—Long experience in the business warrants me in assuring the travelling public that no pains will be spared to render guests as comfortable as possible while sojourning under my roof.

The TABLE will constantly be supplied with the very best the market affords.

The BAR will be found to contain an excellent assortment of LIQUORS of all kinds, including that choice beverage LAGER BEER.

The STABLE is in charge of an excellent and experienced Ostler.

The proprietor hopes, by his long experience in the busines and the facilities at his command, to make the Red Lion, in all respects, a first class Hotel. The business of the Hotel will be under my own personal supervision. A liberal share of public patronage is kindly solicited.

MARRIAGE GUIDE—BEING A private instructor for married persons, or those about to be married, both male and female, in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our system, and the production or prevention offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings.—All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or in postage stamps Address DR. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

☞ AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE—No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any one of the notorious quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of either of Dr. Young's Books, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health and possibly your life.

CONSUMPTION AND ASTHMA CURED.

DR. H. JAMES

Discovered, while in the West Indies, a certain cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility. The remedy was discovered by him when his only child, a daughter, was given up to die. His child was cured, and is now alive and well. Desirous of benefitting his fellow mortals, he will send to those who wish it, the recipe containing full directions for making and successfully using this remedy, free, on receipt of their names with stamp for return postage. When received, take it to G. W. Kessler, Druggist, Altoona. There is not a single symptom of Consumption which it does not at once take hold of and dissipate. Night sweats, peevishness, irritation of the nerves, failure of memory, difficult expectoration, sharp pains in the lungs, sore throat, chilly sensations, nausea at the stomach, inaction of the bowels, wasting away of the muscles. DR. O. PHELPS BROWN'S ACACIAN BALSAM

FOR THE PERMANENT

CURE OF CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, COUGHS, COLDS, & GENERAL DEBILITY, &c.

THIS remedy is offered as affording a means of speedy cure for the large number that die annually in our land of that fell scourge, Consumption, to which, unfortunately, so many predisposing causes exist. Youth and age are alike subject to its ravages.

EVERY PERSON

can name one or more of his acquaintances who is subject to some form of lung or throat complaint, which, if not attended to in season, inevitably consigns the sufferer to a premature grave. To such, help is at hand if they will but avail themselves of it, and hope,—the harbinger of brighter days,—may be awakened without fear of chilling disappointment. Dr. O. PHELPS BROWN'S ACACIAN BALSAM does just what is claimed for it, and may be relied upon by the sick as being the most successful in curing lung and throat disorders, of any remedy known at the present day. The many phases assumed by Consumption justifies the apprehension of those who have reason to fear its approach, either from constitutional or hereditary tendency.

While the discoverer of this remedy does not believe that people should be constantly dosing themselves with medicines

there are many cases where disease is too long allowed to remain unchecked in the system; and a slight cough, regarded at first as simply an annoyance, ceases only with the life of the patient. An impure state of the blood, through debilitation of the lungs, fills the system with morbid humors, and pulsation becomes feeble or accelerated to a feverish intensity—the heart, liver, and kidneys, separately performing functions of vital necessity to our well-being, are impeded in their regular action—the digestive organs falter in their task, and refuse to perform the process of separating the nutritious elements from food, and the whole mental being is well-nigh ready to sink under the burden of life. The patient so afflicted, accounts his case a complication of disorders, and often refuses to resort to medication, from his thorough disbelief in any prospect of cure. To such of the ACACIAN BALSAM, as thoroughly worthy the confidence of all. Every symptom of Consumption is surely and permanently eradicated by its curative effects are none other but strengthening and renovating to the entire system. Bronchitis, Asthma, Coughs, Colds, and General Debility, are effectually cured by its use. Night-Sweats, Loss of Flesh, and Wasting away of the Muscles, Loss of Appetite, Soreness of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, Liver Complaint, Palpitation of the Heart, Difficulty of Breathing—all these affections disappear in an incredibly short time after using Dr. O. Phelps Brown's Acacian Balsam.

It nourishes and strengthens the patient who is too much reduced to partake of ordinary food. It heals all internal sores, tubercles, and inflammation. It strengthens, braces, and revitalizes the brain, and is without a rival as a tonic, supplying electricity or magnetic force to every part of the enfeebled and prostrate body. It needs no lengthy trial to convince any that the ACACIAN BALSAM is truly the greatest remedy of the day, as its beneficial qualities are fully apparent in eight-and-forty hours after trial.

Let the invalid, then, no longer delay, but make the trial, and the result will surely be of the most gratifying character.

The ACACIAN BALSAM is prepared with the greatest care, and the best materials. No pains or expense are spared to make it what it is—the best known remedy of the age. It may be taken by either sex, of all ages, and at all seasons, with perfect safety; and it is none the less powerful in conquering those diseases which sap the foundation and destroy the lives of so many in our midst. Every family should have it, and regard it as a household treasure.

MOTHERS

Thousands are daily speaking in the praise of DR. EATON'S

INFANTILE CORDIAL,

and why? because it never fails to afford instantaneous relief when given in time. It acts as if by magic, and one trial alone will convince you that what we say is true. It contains of any kind, and therefore relieves by removing the sufferings of your child, instead of by deadening its sensibilities. For this reason, it commends itself as the only reliable preparation now known for CHILDREN TEETHING, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, WIND, COLD IN THE HEAD, and CROUP, also, for softening the gums, reducing inflammation, regulating the Bowels, and relieving pain, it has no equal—being an anti-spasmodic it is used with unfailing success in all cases of CONVULSION OR OTHER FITS. As you value the life and health of your children, and wish to save them from those sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics of which all other remedies for Infantile Complaints are composed, take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL, this you can rely upon. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant. Price, 25 cents. Full directions accompany each bottle. Prepared only by

BLOOD FOOD

Healthy human Blood upon being always presents us with the same essential elements, and gives of course the TRUE STANDARD. Analyze the Blood of a person suffering from Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, &c., and we find in every instance certain deficiences in the red globules of Blood. Supply these deficiencies, and you are made well. The BLOOD FOOD is founded upon this Theory—hence its astonishing success. There are adapted to the deficiencies of the Blood in different diseases. For COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, or any affection whatever of the THROAT or LUNGS, inducing CONSUMPTION, use No. 1, which is also the No. for DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS, LOSS OF APPETITE, and for all CHRONIC COMPLAINTS, arising from OVER-USE, GENERAL DEBILITY, and NERVOUS PROSTRATION. No. 2, for LIVER COMPLAINTS, No. 3 for DYSPEPSIA. Being already prepared for absorption it is TAKEN BY DROPS and carried immediately into the circulation, so that what you gain you retain. The No. 4 is for FEMALE IRREGULARITIES, HYSTERIA, WEAKNESSES, &c. See special directions for this. For SALT RHEUM, ERUPTIONS, SCROFULOUS, KIDNEY, and BLADDER COMPLAINTS, take No. 5. In all cases the directions must be strictly followed.
